Brighton Doll Festival is pleased to announce our 3rd International Reborn Show

The Joy of Reborn Dolls

This will take place on

17th April 2011

at

Brighton Racecourse

This is an excellent venue for this type of show.

Set high on the Sussex Downs, with stunning views over Brighton and Hove and the English Channel, our venue has, in the words of Channel 4's website, "undoubtedly one of the most picturesque settings of any course"

There is ample free parking and a separate car park for exhibitors and easy access to the hall. This car park will only be for you and a security guard is on duty to make sure that only vendors enter this area.

There is a cafe serving tea, coffee, cold drinks, sandwiches and pies and pasties. Nearer the date we will ensure that the event is widely advertised and I will also be sending you a flyer which you can print and hand out where ever you choose.

Tables will be available at a cost of £68.00 GBP. Three persons are included for each booking.

If you book 3 tables or more they will be payable at a cost of £60.00 GBP each table.

Tables are 6ft (approx 2 metres) in length and you will need to provide your own table coverings.

There will also be a mini competition for vendors only and the winner will be voted for by the public. There will be a trophy for First Place and Rosettes for two runner ups.

If you would like to enter your doll for this competition there will be a small fee of £3.00. Up to two dolls may be entered per doll artist.

Your company name and a few words and a picture will be listed on the website for free,
